Dear Mary:

I am just now trying to finish up the S.E. minutes, etc. Enclosed you will find a copy of the minutes. I am mailing a copy to Sarah, too.

I have written Garry and Earl and mailed Earl the Resolution.- in the form of "thankyou" to both.

I will, today, send the list of Officers to both Jane and Miss Diemer, Administrative Secretary. It was 100 Percent for Charin and Von Allmen.

Have you heard anything about the Memorial for Dorothy? I received the bill for the flowers and paid it and also received an acknowledgment from Dorothy's cousin.

Sarah suggested I write an acknowledgement to Dean, Univ. of Miss. Law School. Will try to do that today, too.

It was fun being with you and rooming with you. I did arrive home safely, but I have been working so hard that it seems I just didn't have enough vacation. I do have another week coming to me, so might just drive down to Columbia sometime and stop by to see you. Don't ask me when, however!

Affectionately,
