September 11, 1970

Dear Mary,

School has started - 150 Freshmen!

I will be moving to my apartment - 122 N. Peterson, Apt.10, Louisville, Ky. 40206, on September 21, 1970.

So you can understand why I have not written to you and thank you for being a wonderful hostess to us at the SE Chapter meeting.

I heard from Morris and today I have written him a check in payment of his room and registration fee - $26.08.

If you have any expenses, please advise me.

It's beginning to feel like football weather, and don't forget I have two bathrooms and two bedrooms--so if you plan to come to Louisville, please let me know and share my spacious apartment--balcony and all!

Did you get a vacation? I do hope so because you deserved one after that meeting, and again every thing was really delightful.

The Southeastern Chapter does appreciate it.

Affectionately,
