Dear Nancy Jo:

I am pleased you have the materials (hope you have a place to store those boxes!) and that you have the money deposited.

I have been trying to get a Newsletter written, and have just about have it altogether.

Paul Willis has mimeographed the changes for the ballot for the constitution, so I will send those on to you with my newsletter. I do hope you will have time and facilities to run the newsletters off.

Please send letters and ballots only to Members.

I am just now making you aware of what my plans are:

As soon as I hear from several people about acceptances for Chairmans of Committees, I can send the materials on to you.

Perhaps you can be addressing the envelopes. There will be 3 pages, including the ballot - 2 pages for the Newsletter.

I do hope things are going well with you.

Hopefully this will be the only letter we will have to get out until the Institute, but we are hoping AALL will help with that.

I will be writing again soon.

Most cordially,

[Signature]

P.S. Our building is going up fantastically fast; I sometimes wish the whole thing would just evaporate when I think of the work involved next year. Well, my motto is to live each day.
