Dear Nancy:

Enclosed find the materials Peyton sent to me to O.K. for you for payment of bills for the Institute.

I am sure you will not have any trouble with the bills inasmuch as Peyton has everything in good order.

I am sure Mr. Schroeder was well pleased with the Institute and I was extremely happy to see him there.

We should be sending out the bills for the dues, which will be $5.00 this year, and I should enclose a short notice about the breakfast at the Seattle meeting.

I will work on that this week-end and mail you something next week.

Most cordially,

Mrs. Pearl W. Von Allmen
