Dear Sarah,

I received the letters concerning the meeting in New Orleans. You have been very busy!

I sent the Resolution about Joan on to Jane Hammond and asked her to mail it to the person in charge of the Memorials for the AALL. That was a shock about Joan and much a tragedy. I thought perhaps she had been sick; she always looked so frail, to me.

If you could give me the name of her Mother or her husband, and you think I should, I would be glad to send a sympathy note on behalf of the Southeastern Chapter.

I wasn't surprised at Leah's suggestion, because we discussed this last year, I believe I did at the National Meeting with her at breakfast - the topic of reproducing copyrighted materials. I don't believe there is an answer, really. I would think the AALS Booklist project could be discussed - and perhaps both could be in the form of an afternoon meeting. Perhaps Kate would have some ideas on this AALS Booklist project. Gerry said Miss Farmer wrote a letter to him and said she was going to purchase all of the books listed?

I wonder what happened to our Memorial gift for Boroshy? Wasn't Mary supposed to follow through with something? I hesitate to bring this up, because I know you are busy. When I read your annual report (very good) I thought about our motion to do something in the way of a dictionary stand—or something?

We are in the midst of Hoot Court, so you know we are busier than we want to be!

If there's anything else I should do, let me know.

Oh yes, we should find out if there will be a room available for our S.E. Breakfast. Will you take care of this or do you want me to write?

Most cordially,
