Dear Payton:

I was very pleased with your accepting the Chairmanship for the Class KP Seminar in April, 1973.

I know we are all very busy, and I know you will be since you are taking a position at a new school. However, I am sure you will be excellent in this position.

I am asking several people to assist me in writing up the Newsletter that I would like to get out in a month: Paul Willis on the Constitution, Rick Surles on the panel discussion.

Will you, within two weeks, send me a short paragraph on your ideas of what we can expect for the CLASS KP seminar? This I will include in the Newsletter.

If you have any other suggestions, please send them on.

Most cordially,

Mrs. Pearl W. Von Allmen,
President, SE, AALL
