November 20, 1973

Mr. Peyton Neal, Jr., Law Librarian
Washington and Lee
Lexington, Va.

Dear Peyton:

Enclosed you will find my thoughts pertaining to what may be included in the Newsletter.

You notice the dates have been set for the INSTITUTE.

I hope you are being able to "gather-up" materials for the Newsletter and will get it out soon.

Most appreciatively,

President, SE, AALL

The August 19th, 1973 meeting at Marco Island, Florida was well attended and Erwin Surrency, President, A.A.L.L. brought us greetings and a message concerning the work of our Association.

At the business meeting we voted $200.00 for the year 1974 for the Lucille Elliott Scholarship Fund.

Because of the intense interest in Regional Institutes, I appointed Betty Taylor, Director and Lamar Woodard, Co-Director to set-up an Institute on Administration to be held in Atlanta, Ga. sometime in the month of April, 1974. The program and demonstration of the Information Dynamics Corporation was very good.

On October 26, 1973 I attended the ORALL Chapter Meeting at Lexington, Ky. Our members of the Southeastern Chapter (University of Kentucky and Chase Law School) proved to be excellent hostesses. Charlotte Levy had prepared a good program on Computers.

PLAN NOW TO ATTEND THE INSTITUTE ON ADMINISTRATION - April 5 and 6, 1974--Sheraton Biltmore Hotel in Atlanta, Georgia.
