Mr. Erwin C. Surrency, Law Librarian
Temple University
School of Law
Philadelphia, Pa. 19122

Dear Mr. Surrency:

What a tragic thing has happened to you with your Law Library burning! I have had to cope with water, but I am sure fire must have been much worse to cope with; you probably had both fire and water.

If we should have some duplicate materials we can send you, of course, we will let you know.

You will have a difficult year ahead, and to some degree I know what it will be like.

We are building a law library with some professor's offices in it, and that has started. It should be finished some 18 months hence.

Along with that, I have the Legal Research class (some 160 students) and also I am President of the SE, AALL for the next two years.

It all seems to come at once, doesn't it?

Anyway, I wanted you to know that I send you my sympathy, and if at next year this time, everything is going well, we will want you to meet with our Southeastern Chapter.

Most cordially,

Mrs. Pearl W. Von Allmen,
President, SE, AALL and Law Librarian,
University of Louisville
