Dear Mr. Younger:

It was difficult to get back to work after that delightful meeting we had in Lexington, wasn't it? I was so glad that you were able to attend. I hope you got much from the meeting, too. Sometimes smaller crowds are more beneficial than the larger meetings, don't you think?

I have checked your payment for the dues and I do not have a record of receiving your check. Will you check with your secretary and if you find that it was mailed in, then I will go ahead and see that you are listed as paid. Sometimes our mail does get lost.

I will be anxious to hear from you.

Very truly yours,

Mrs. Pearl W. Von Allmen,
Law Librarian, Sec't. Treas.
