Dear Bill:

They say Libra's are procrastinators, and sometime I believe I am a true Libran! (Not always).

Anyway, I really got mixed up about the "changing of the guards" for the S.E.A.L.L.L. and did not send out the Ballots at the proper time which was July, 1970.

So, you serve as Secretary-Treasurer from Sept. 1970 thru Sept. 1972, and Leah is the President for that time, so you will work with her. I am President Elect and if all goes well, I will be President from 1972-74.

So now: I still have another two packages I must get off to you. Mostly membership lists. One package will be my way of keeping track of the dues-- I had names listed on small cards, so will send it on to you.

As soon as our weather moderates I will get to the bank, pull out the money, mail it to you, and also send the packages, and then you will be in Business.

Leah will be writing to you soon for money, I am sure.

I will let her know when everything has been sent to you, which should be next week sometime.

We have had snow, near zero temperature, sleet, rain, hail, etc. And I have been fighting a cold, so you see why I have delayed the rest of the materials.

The big box is just back materials, along with current folders which you can check readily, I hope.

I will write again next week.

Most Cordially,
