SOUTHEASTERN CHAPTER
AMERICAN ASSOCIATION OF LAW LIBRARIES

July 10, 1972

Mr. William Younger,
Alabama Supreme Court Library
Judicial Bldg.-Capitol
Montgomery, Ala. 36104

Dear Bill:

Now that I am back again to the Library I am beginning to feel the pressure about the South Eastern, especially since Leah leaves today for Israel!

How soon do you plan to get out the ballot? Also, do you think we should enclose a one page NewsLetter, if you plan to send out notices soon? At least before the meeting in Georgia.

I am hoping Leah had time to box up some letters to me concerning committees, etc. and the meeting in Georgia.

Do you have any suggestions? Also, how many attended the luncheon that day? I counted 40 or 41 registered and wondered if all of them made it to the luncheon other than Mary Oliver?

When you get rested from the meeting, drop me a note and let me know your feelings on any of the above.

Most cordially,
