Dear Bill,

Thanks so much for your letter, and I finally took time to read the old Constitution and By-Laws and have come to the conclusion that you suggested.

We will read over the new constitution, and then after the meeting send it out to the paid membership members, and let them vote on it.

At that time I will send a news-letter, with the ~~new constitution~~ ^{letter} ~~constitution~~.

I heard that Paul Willis was having a tough time with reservations, too.

If you haven't done so, why don't you say you are an officer for the S.E.A.A.L.L. Perhaps that will bring results. I believe I signed my name in that manner.

I am driving to Atlanta, and then on Sunday A.M. will take the plane to St. Simons, so I won't have my car. I am sure I will miss it. You know how I like to "squire" people around!

I am glad you can pinch-hit for me. I will have to leave at 4:30 on Tuesday, plane goes out at 5 P.M. so you might have to carry on for me at that time too, if the meeting goes on and on, which I don't want to happen if it can be done otherwise.

I have written to Dick Surles, and am hoping that he will answer soon. Hope he will make it. I doubt if we will have more than 15.

A student just returned from Pennsylvania and he told me that the Temple Law Library had a great fire and lost lots of its books. Poor Mr. Surrency-- he is on the Board and President-elect!

Our building has commenced, so what with teaching, new building and President of S.E. you know I won't have time to "play" much. Anyway, it's a great life.

See you August 20th.

Most cordially,

Paul
