Dear Bill:

Thanks so much for taking over about the breakfast and your letter should do the "trick".

I have found the cuff links, and have ordered several other things which I might add to the cuff links.

My plans are made now to drive down to Atlanta on Wednesday, April 4th, and browse around the Emory Law Library on Wednesday afternoon.

I am writing now to extend an invitation to you to attend the Faculty Breakfast on Thursday, April 5, 1973 at the Emory Room. The Opening Session of course for Administrators is at 1 p.m.

I plan to leave on Wednesday Friday noon, perhaps staying for the luncheon (I doubt it, though, since I want to be in Louisville by 7 p.m. on Friday).

Anyway, are you planning to attend? Let me know when you have made your plans.

Sincerely,

Mrs. Pearl W. Von Allmen
SE President
