Mr. William C. Younger Esq.
Librarian, Alabama Supreme Court Library
Judicial Building - Capitol
Montgomery, Alabama 36104

Dear Mr. Younger:

This will serve as an official invitation to hold one of the future meetings of the Southeastern Chapter of the American Association of Law Libraries in sunny Puerto Rico, the Convention Capital of the Caribbean.

I understand that you always meet at the same time with the Southeastern Chapter of the American Association of Law Schools. If so, please let me know to whom should I address to invite this other organization to have a "joint meeting" with yours here.

Having a convention in Puerto Rico, a Commonwealth of U.S. citizens, is like having it in the states - no problems about currency, language, customs or immigration - but in a different atmosphere. San Juan, a 450 year-city for you to explore, is a blend of the old and the new.

Puerto Rico is served by four major airlines: Pan American, Eastern, Delta and American, with fares among the cheapest in the world and direct flights from almost all key cities in the United States.

Enclosed please find some advanced information and literature on our facilities for conventions which, I am sure, you will find of interest.

I look forward to an early encouraging reply.

Sincerely,

Adolfo Porrata-Doria
