Dear Mr. Younger:

I certainly appreciated your phone call this past week. In fact, I was able to speak to Dean Merritt that same afternoon. To my surprise, he had already written to Cameron Allen. He seemed receptive to your offer to assist in whatever capacity you could and said that I should pass on to you his thanks. He admitted that he would need help and was glad to learn where he could turn. One interesting, yet appalling, sidelight was that President Miller has not even given the green light for a search committee to secure names of prospective candidates. Hopefully, the President will consider this a priority and not keep it bogged down in red tape.

This morning we went to Mrs. Von Allmen's apartment to gather the plans for the move, etc. One drawer contained nothing but materials and correspondence pertaining to the SE Chapter—folders on committees, class K and others. I told her niece that I would contact you about them. Should these be forwarded to you? I had no idea how much is passed on from one president to the next.

Thanks for your continued help and concern. I am really grateful to you.

Sincerely,

(Miss) Linda Wallbaum
