Dear Jim:

It was good to get your letter of August 2 inviting the Southeastern Chapter to hold a joint meeting with the Ohio Regional Association of Law Libraries in Cincinnati in May of 1977 and I am glad to know that you have been working with Ms. Anne Butler, our planning chairman for the Southeastern Chapter's Spring 1977 meeting.

Most of our Chapter meetings have been joint meetings with other organizations and we are enthused over the idea of having a joint meeting with the Ohio Regional Association of Law Libraries. This matter will be taken up at our annual meeting, August 19-21, and Anne will be in touch with you as soon as the decision has been made on behalf of our Chapter. Best wishes.

Sincerely,

William C. Younger
President

Dear Bill:

Following discussions with your meeting planning chairman, Ms. Anne Butler, and with the members of our executive board, it is my pleasure to invite the Southeastern Chapter to hold a joint meeting with the Ohio Regional Association of Law Libraries in Cincinnati in May of 1977. I certainly hope that our invitation will be received favorably and that we can arrange such a meeting.

We will be electing new officers in October, 1976, thus I have no idea who our new president will be. Because of this, I also have no idea who will be in charge of local arrangements or of the program. I shall be in contact with our current president, Oscar Trelles, and it is likely that he will go ahead and name such persons in advance, so that we can get the ball rolling. In any case, the invitation is "official", and assuming that the Southeastern Chapter accepts, we can at least go on the assumption that the joint meeting will take place.

I shall keep you informed of developments at this end of the line, and look forward to hearing from you in the not too distant future.

Cordially,

Prof. James F. Bailey, III
Director of the Law Library
