Dear Leah:

Enclosed is a blank copy of our letterhead. Please make any suggestions or changes which you feel should be done. It is now time for the election of new officers and our letterhead needs to be reprinted.

I called Pearl's office yesterday to check to see if there had been any further nominations and her secretary told me that there had been none. I have requested that Nancy send the ballots out for the election.

Pearl was still in a coma. The doctors will not attempt to operate in her condition. Her family plans to move her to a nursing home. Let us all pray that she has a complete recovery.

Please let me hear from you soon.

Sincerely,

William C. Younger
