Dear Leah:

It was good to hear from you and I am glad to know that you have already started working on the Lucile Elliott scholarships for this year. As you know, we allocated $500 last year. That is a small amount and I would like to see us increase it to $600 this time, if we can. I am asking the other two members of the Executive Committee, Caroline Heriot and Lamar Woodard, for their thoughts on this matter. If they agree, we will set it at $600 for this year. They are hereby requested to reply to me on this point sending you a copy of their letters. I would hope that they will reply promptly.

Professor J. Lamar Woodard was elected secretary-treasurer of the Chapter to serve out the unexpired term of Nancy Kitchen. I would think that he should send you a current, up-to-date mailing list of the Chapter members and that you would want to do the mailing. He is hereby requested to send you such a list along with a Chapter check to cover the postage for this mailing.

On the question of Xeroxing the announcement of the scholarships, you might investigate the possibility of getting it printed at a fast print shop. We have such a service here and it is very inexpensive. All you have to do is prepare the master and they print from that. My thoughts are that you would want to make the mailing so the replies would come to you.

Peyton Neal is still editor of the Chapter newsletter and he should be publishing a newsletter about this time. Please keep me posted also because I plan to put out a Chapter president's letter fairly soon. Best wishes.

Sincerely,

Willaim C. Younger
President
