Dear Frances:

Professor Leah F. Chanin, President of the Southeastern Chapter of the American Association of Law Libraries, requested that I write you on behalf of the Chapter and express our appreciation to you for your help and excellent work with the conference at Boar's Head Inn August 22-24, 1971. The program was outstanding, especially the program of the Southeastern Chapter which was arranged by you.

Please express our appreciation to all of the members of your staff who went all out to make the meeting a success. Please let us know when we as individuals or as a Chapter can be of assistance to you.

Sincerely yours,

William C. Younger, Secretary-Treasurer
