Mrs. Carolyn Gray
Tennessee State Law Library
Supreme Court Building
Nashville, Tennessee 37219

Dear Mrs. Gray:

The Honorable Donn L. Odom, the Georgia State Law Librarian, told me about meeting you and your being at the Tennessee State Law Library. It is good to know that you are there. Is Miss Freda Brown still with the library? We never had much contact with her, but we knew that she was there.

I hope that you will become active in the American Association of Law Libraries and its Southeastern Chapter. Both have many good activities and programs. Try to attend if you can.

The records that I have as President of the Southeastern Chapter do not indicate that either you or your library is a member of the Southeastern Chapter; but the A.A.L.L. Directory indicates that your library is a member of the American Association of Law Libraries. If you desire to become a member of the Southeastern Chapter, and I hope that you do, please send either a personal check or library check to our Secretary-Treasurer, Mrs. Nancy Kitchen. Her address appears at the top of this letter. Send $5 for each membership desired and list the names of the persons to hold the memberships. Our fiscal year is the same as that of A.A.L.L. which is June 1-May 31. If you are already a member, that is good.

Come by to see us if you are ever down this way. Best wishes.

Sincerely,

William C. Younger
President
