Dear Nancy:

Your letter of resignation as secretary-treasurer of the SE Chapter came this morning. You did not give an effective date and I would hope that you could continue until the end of the August meeting. That would keep us from having to appoint a temporary secretary-treasurer. Do you have any suggestions as to who would make a good successor to you?

You have been a very faithful and dedicated officer and worker in the SE Chapter and it has been a great pleasure to me to have you as secretary-treasurer during my term as president of the Chapter. I especially appreciated your help and advice on Chapter matters.

In addition to the check for the stamps and mailing labels, please send me the minutes of the Los Angeles meeting. I would like to send the minutes out with the President's Newsletter. Hope to see you at the New Orleans meeting. Best wishes.

Sincerely,
