Dear Pearl:

It was good to get your letter of February 3. It cleared up some of my confusion concerning my job as Secretary-Treasurer of SEAALL. You mentioned that you plan to close out the bank accounts there in Louisville and send the money to me. Would it not be better to continue the accounts and change the persons authorized to withdraw from the accounts? I will leave this decision up to you, but I had thought that it would not be too much trouble to bank by mail and continue the accounts as they are.

I suppose any withdrawals from this account would require two signatures anyway; that of the President and that of the Secretary-Treasurer, but I have not researched our files on that point. You could clear this up for me. I will be expecting to hear from you soon.

Sincerely,

William C. Younger, Secretary-Treasurer
