Lt. Colonel Rose L. Volino, Chief
LITE (Hq USAF/JAESL)
3800 York Street
Denver, Colorado 80205

Dear Colonel Volino:

It was good to have you on the program of the Joint Seminar of the Southeastern Chapter of the American Association of Law Libraries and the American Society for Information Science recently in Atlanta. You made a good presentation and we were all glad to know about LITE's Computerized Information Retrieval System for Legal Research. Please send us your package of information concerning this program.

Also, would you put us on your mailing list to receive the LITE Newsletter and send us the back issues, if they are available.

I would like to encourage you as an individual or your organization as an institution to join the American Association of Law Libraries. There would be many benefits flowing to you and your organization from such a membership and the law librarians would benefit very much from your attendance and participation in their programs and meetings. It would be very helpful to us to have you listed in the directory of the A.A.L.L. Attached hereto are some pages containing information on A.A.L.L. from the current Directory of Law Libraries and an application form. Included in the pages from the directory are the listings for the District of Columbia. Many government agencies and libraries are members of A.A.L.L. Please let us know if we can ever be of help to you.

Sincerely,

William C. Younger
President
