Mrs. Vivian L. Wilson, Law Librarian
Wake Forest University
School of Law Library
Winston-Salem, North Carolina 27109

Dear Mrs. Wilson:

Thanks very much for your letter of March 10 concerning Sallie Howard. I am glad to know that she is pursuing her law studies. Maybe one day she will return to law librarianship and become a member of AALL. I note that she is continuing her membership in the Southeastern Chapter.

The latest membership of the SE Chapter furnished to me by Mrs. Nancy Jo Kitchen, Secretary-Treasurer of the Chapter, does not list your name; but it does list the Wake Forest University Law Library. I would assume that you paid for an institutional membership to the SE Chapter by a library or university check. Your name should be listed. I have entered it on my list and I am sending a copy of your letter and my reply to Nancy so she can enter your name on her list. She should be sending out the 1975 bills for SE Chapter dues soon. Best wishes.

Sincerely,

William C. Younger
President
