Dear Lamar:

Transmitted herewith is a box of records of the Southeastern Chapter of the American Association of Law Libraries which was sent to me by Pearl Allman's secretary some time after her death. Since you have the archives of the chapter, you should also have these records. I regret that I did not send them to you sooner.

I am looking forward to the San Francisco meeting and hope to see you there. Best wishes.

Sincerely,

William C. Younger
State Law Librarian
