LEADING ARTICLES

STATE AID FOR KENTUCKY UNITS OF LOCAL GOVERNMENT:
SOME CONSTITUTIONAL PROBLEMS............Kenneth E. Vanlandingham 271
COPYRIGHT PROTECTION TO ALIENS AND STATELESS
PERSONS..................................................Edward T. Breathitt, Jr. 302

NOTES AND COMMENTS

Plaintiff’s Violation of a Statute as Affecting Recovery for Negligence—“Proximate Cause”.........................William S. Tribell 316
Child Custody in Kentucky: Divorce Cases, 1940-1952..Charles N. Carnes 324
Divorce—Does Recrimination Remain in Kentucky........Thomas P. Lewis 330
Enforcement of Alimony Decrees in Kentucky........John W. Murphy, Jr. 335
The Degree of Interest Necessary to Disqualify a Witness
Under the Dead Man’s Act................................Norma D. Boster 341
Federal Taxation: Regulation Through Taxation—
Bookie Tax....................................................John K. Leopard 346
Failure to Mention Afterborn Children in Will Made While
Wife Is Pregnant as Showing Intent to Disinherit......Myer S. Tulkoff 357

BOOK REVIEWS

University of Michigan Law School: Taxation of Business Enterprise........................................W. Lewis Roberts 358
Harper: Problems of the Family........................James W. Gladden 359
Mariano: A Psychoanalytic Lawyer Looks at
Marriage and Divorce....................................James W. Gladden 359

Published November, January, March and May by the College of Law, University of Kentucky, Lexington, Kentucky. Entered as second-class matter October 12, 1927, at the post office at Lexington, Kentucky, under the act of March 3, 1879. $4.00 PER ANNUM $2.00 PER NUMBER