NEWS OF ALUMNI

EDGAR H. DUNN

The following is taken from the "Evening Independent" of St. Petersburg, Fla., of January 30, 1924:

"Although kept extremely busy with an exacting law practice, Mr. Dunn has found time to engage in many civic activities. He is vice president of the Civitan Club, and a member of the Chamber of Commerce, the State and County bar associations, the University Club, and the Country Club as well as the Odd Fellows Lodge. He is also a member of the First Presbyterian Church.

"During the war Mr. Dunn served as chairman of the city draft board."

The quotation above refers to Edgar H. Dunn, B. L. '13 now practicing law in St. Petersburg, and residing at 730 Roser Park Drive in that city.

At the University of Kentucky he is remembered as President of the Henry Clay Law Society.
