A NEW EDITION OF THE GREAT MASTERPIECE

Jones on Mortgages

The Author and His Work

The works of Judge Leonard A. Jones, devoted primarily to Property Law, are among the great contributions to American legal literature. The first edition of "Mortgages," which appeared in 1878, immediately took rank as authority on the subject. Through its successive editions it has continued to merit the confidence of the bench and bar. It is cited thousands of times in the reports of the Courts of Last Resort, in fact, more than all other works on the subject combined.

The New Edition

The new Seventh Edition has been revised by the publishers' editorial staff. Every new principle has been brought out at length and all new cases examined and cited. The work has been increased fully fifty per cent by the addition of entirely new matter.

Seventh Edition, Three Large Volumes, Buckram Binding, 3600 Pages. Price $22.50 Delivered
