The King Library Press

The King Library Press, located in the Department of Special Collections at the University of Kentucky's M.I. King Library, is a publishing and teaching institution devoted to the continuation of book production using the handpress as tool. All composition, presswork, and casebinding are done at the press.

BOOKS IN PRINT:

Algernon Charles Swinburne, On the Cliffs

The English Victorian poet Algernon Swinburne wrote this poem in 1879 and it was published as part of his Songs of the Springtides in London in 1880. This text is set from the first edition and the present production is believed to be the first separate printing of the poem. Each copy of On the Cliffs is printed on a single length (73 3/4 inches) of handmade Japanese paper, a visual interpretation by John Tuska complementing the text. The artist's bold figures are printed in three colors from the handcut blocks and form a frieze parallel to the text. The sheet is accordion-folded and contained between boards covered with a dark plum Japanese paper. The whole is presented in a standing slipcase displaying a paper sculpture by Tuska. $200.00

John Clubbe, Byron's Natural Man/Daniel Boone and Kentucky

Nine stanzas from Lord Byron's comic epic poem Don Juan are based on Byron's knowledge of Daniel Boone and constitute his major reference to life in America. Citing these stanzas, which are reprinted within the introduction, University of Kentucky professor John Clubbe has written a monograph exploring how and what Byron knew of Boone and the life of the western frontier. Artist Robert James Foose created and printed the frontispiece to the work which is a single portrait of Boone and Byron. The binding features a linen spine and marbled Japanese paper sides over boards. $60.00
William Kavanaugh Doty, The Confectionary of Monsieur Giron, with an afterword by Burton Milward

Doty's essay tells the story of Mathurin Giron, a French émigré, and his Confectionary which stood on Mill Street in downtown Lexington in the early 1800s. (Part of the building remains standing.) The piece was originally printed in book form in 1915 and this production represents the first reprinting. In his afterword, local historian Burton Milward offers interesting sidelights on both the validity of Doty's text and the state of the Confectionary today. The text is printed on soft white Hosho paper and enclosed in a binding of dusky green Italian paper over boards imprinted with the elevation of the Confectionary in red. $30.00

The University of Kentucky Library Associates

The University of Kentucky Library Associates were organized in November 1954 and reactivated in January 1977. They are an organization of library-minded alumni, faculty, students, and friends who take a special interest in the resources and activities of the University Libraries. By their annual gifts and contributions, the Associates help the Libraries acquire special research materials—books, manuscripts, family papers, and the like—that could not be included in the regular library budget.

Each year the Associates organize a number of activities for the public and the membership. They also sponsor in part the publishing and teaching programs of The King Library Press, the hand press in the Department of Special Collections. Publications of the Press are offered to members at a twenty-percent discount. A subscription to the Associates' journal, The Kentucky Review, is provided free to members.

Membership is open to anyone contributing annually fifteen dollars or more (five dollars for students) in cash or library materials. For further information write The Secretary, The Library Associates, University of Kentucky Libraries, Lexington, KY 40506.
