1982

Contributors [v. 3, no. 2]
CONTENTS

Keats the Humanist
by Ernest J. Lovell, Jr., and John Clubbe .................... 3

The Kentucky Tradition in Landscape Painting to World War I by Arthur Jones ......................................... 19

Ben Jonson's Rhetoric of Love
by Mary L. Livingston ..................................... 35

Kentucky in the 1880s:
An Exploration in Historical Demography
by Thomas R. Ford ........................................ 42

An Interview with Ruth Whitman
by Jane Gentry Vance ...................................... 59

The Politics of Revision: The Third Women Writers Conference at the University of Kentucky
by Ann Kilkelly Gavere and Sandra Y. Govan ............... 77

LIBRARY NOTES:
The Salamanca of Richard Ford:
Notes from the Margaret I. King Library
by Harriet L. Ford ......................................... 91

Selected Acquisitions .................................... 99

Publications ................................................ 101

THE LIBRARY ASSOCIATES ............................... 102
CONTRIBUTORS’ NOTES

Harriet L. Ford is the librarian for the College of Social Work at the University of Kentucky.

Ann Kilkelley Gavere, assistant professor of English at the University of Kentucky, is a writer, dancer, actress, and director. She served on the Women Writers Conference Committee.

Sandra Y. Govan is an assistant professor of English at the University of Kentucky, where she is a member of the Women Writers Conference Committee and the Black Studies Committee. Occasionally, when there is time, she writes fiction and poetry.

Mary L. Livingston is director of the Northern Illinois University Press. She has published articles on Ben Jonson and Shakespeare.

Ernest J. Lovell, Jr., late professor of English at the University of Texas at Austin, was a scholar of the English romantics. His publications include Captain Medwin: Friend of Byron and Shelley (University Press of Texas, 1962) and Lady Blessington’s Conversations of Lord Byron (Princeton University Press, 1969).

Jane Gentry Vance, an associate professor in the University of Kentucky Honors Program, has published poems in several anthologies and in a number of periodicals, among them the Hollins Critic, Southern Poetry Review, and Spoon River Quarterly. 